VCE Health & Human Development 2018

With the new study design commencing in 2018, this engaging, interactive and practical professional development program is essential for all teachers of the VCE Health & Human Development (Units 1-4) course.

The main purpose of this program is to outline the major changes to the new VCE Health & Human Development Study Design being implemented in 2018 and provide teachers with a range of teaching strategies and learning activities that can be used when teaching the new course – including the provision of materials that focus on current issues that can be used in the classroom to teach and assess the key knowledge and key skills in the new course. In particular, this program will focus on the more challenging aspects of the course. During the session(s) you will be provided with:

- sample unit outlines; activities that can be utilised in the classroom; and creative ideas for assessment tasks.

Because of the dynamic nature of the content covered in VCE H&HD and the fact that statistics and trends are always changing, this session will provide you with current data and information that you can use in class with your students to ensure that you are keeping up-to-date with the latest trends. This professional learning activity is about much more than just being shown ideas about what to do, rather the aim is to provide you with a range practical and ready to use resources to add to your existing 'toolkit' and enhance your teaching.

PRESENTERS

Sonia Goodacre

BAppSci, BEd Health Education educator

Sonia has been a teacher of H&HD since 1999. Teaching in both secondary Schools and TAFE, she has taught a wide range of students from a variety of different backgrounds and abilities. She is an author of two texts for the current course: Cambridge VCE H&HD Unit 3 and 4; and Cambridge VCE H&HD Unit 1 and 2. Sonia has been a member of study design reaccreditation panels as well as being involved in the review process of the current course and has had experience as an exam VCAA assessor 2000–2007. She conducts a number of sessions through Cambridge and the Australian Council for Health, Physical Education and Recreation (ACHPER) to assist other teachers with planning assessments and coursework for Units 1–4. Sonia has been presenting for Access Education since 2003.

Agatha Panetta
