

Teacher's Toolkit

Preparing your students for the VCE Unit 3 & 4
Health & Human Development Exam in 2018

A NEW STUDY DESIGN. Be Prepared... Not Scared

Exam preparation for teachers of VCE Health & Human Development Units 3 & 4

This interactive session will review key knowledge and skills and provide practical advice to assist you in running a successful revision program. Key changes in the 2018 study design will be highlighted to assist teachers in preparing their students for the end of year exam. A range of revision tools and activities will be explored, including a number of resources to take back to school and add to your revision 'toolkit'. Performance in the 2017 exam where relevant will be considered along with some advice to assist your students in avoiding common mistakes that have been made in previous years. A range of suitable exam style questions will also be provided.

PRESENTER

Chrissy Collins BAppSci, BEd Health and Home Economics

Chrissy has been a H&HD VCE teacher for over 15 years. She has taught in government secondary schools and held a range of different leadership positions. Throughout her teaching career she has been a VCAA exam assessor for a range of subjects including the GAT. She is an author of two texts for the current course: Cambridge VCE H&HD Unit 3 and 4; and Cambridge VCE H&HD Unit 1 and 2. Passionate about building teacher and student capacity, she is involved in a range of student and teacher workshops, including exam revision.
